and specialists in maritime matters. Four new radio clubs have been opened in Stry, Poltava, Voroshilovgrad, and Zhitomir. Radio operators are preparing for an all-Union competition.

Shooting competitions in which many members of the volunteer societies will participate will take place in the Ukraine from 15 to 25 February. Separate contest results will be sent in to determine the winner.

KHABAROVSK KOMSOMOL URGED TO AID DOSAV -- Moloday Dal'nevostochnik, No 3, 9 Jan 49

P. Pisarevskiy, deputy chairman of the DOSAV Organizational Bureau for Khabarovsk Kray, reports that dozens of primary DOSAV organizations have been created in Khabarovsk Kray. Membership is open to anyone having reached 15 years of age. The committee of the primary organization, consisting of from 3 to 7 persons, is elected at a general meeting of DOSAV members, which also elect a three-person auditing commission. The committee then elects from among its staff a chairman, deputy, and secretary.

Many Komsomols in the kray have not yet taken active part in DOSAV organizations. Saitonov, secretary of the Komsomol Committee at the Khabarovsk Medical Institute, offered no aid to DOSAV representatives who made an effort to set up a primary organization in the institute. Secretaries of Komsomol organizations in the Khabarovsk Plants imeni Molotov and imeni Kaganovich, the ship-repair plant, Brick Plant No 2, the repair shops, etc., have made no effort to assist the creation of DOSAV organizations in their enterprises. The work of establishing DOSAV organizations in the Jewish Autonomous Oblast and in regions subordinate to the kray is progressing very slowly, and not one DOSAV group has yet been created there.

DOSAV is opening an air club in Khabarovsk and two affiliate clubs in other cities of the kray in 1949. Training and sporting groups will be created in those clubs, and extensive dissemination of aviation science will be carried on by club members.

DOSFLOT INITIATES COMPETITION -- Krasnyy Flot, No 30, 6 Feb 49

Students at the Rostov River Technical School have initiated a competition of primary DOSFLOT organizations in honor of the 31st anniversary of the Soviet Army. Students have pledged to train groups of signalmen, cutter engineers, and snipers, to set up a shooting range, to organize a group for a training sloop, and to conduct regular discussions on maritime topics in enterprises of the region during 1949.

DOSFLOT members of the River Technical School challenged members of the Maritime School imeni Sedov and of the Training Course of Azov State Maritime Steamship Line to the competition.

ANDIZHAN DOSARM EXPANDS TRAINING PROGRAM -- Stalinskoye Zhamya, No 19, 29 Jan 49

A. Pulin, chairman of the organizational bureau of DOSARM in the city of Andizhan, reports that the Andizhan DOSARM organization has done a considerable amount of work in the 6 months since it was first created. The automobile club has trained 87 drivers: third class and 46 motorcycle drivers. The primary DOSARM organization at Andizhan Oil Plant No 6 now has 600 members who have built a small-caliber-rifle range and have equipped a military study corner. Three rifle teams regularly have been making studies of weapons and methods of shooting. The primary DOSARM organization at the agricultural technical school now has 200 members, including students, teachers, and technical workers. Rochkevich, a reserve officer, has trained a large group of third-class riflemen and is now training a group of snipers. The primary organization is also training drivers, motorcyclists, and tractor operators.

All primary organizations are now holding auditing and electoral conferences in which heads of committees and the auditing commission will be elected by secret ballot. Pulin advises all DOSARM members to take an active part in these conferences, and to elect as heads of committees only those members who are active in the society and who know military work, and to elect as heads of auditing commissions members familiar with economic and financial matters.
